Pastor's Ponderings

Light and Delight in the Season of Epiphany

Epiphany arrives quietly after the noise and sparkle of Christmas. Epiphany is the church liturgical season where we concentrate on light. Not the soft glow of candles in a manger, but the clear, guiding light of God made known to the world in Christ. This is a season of revelation, of holy aha moments.

This is a season of light AND this is also a season of deep delight.

The story that anchors Epiphany is the visit of the wise men. These travelers from afar are guided not by familiarity or tradition, but by curiosity and trust. They follow a star they do not fully understand, drawn forward by a promise they cannot yet name. And when they arrive—not in a palace, but at a humble stable—they kneel. They worship. They delight in this one, the Christ, wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in the manger.

The light of Epiphany, perhaps unlike Christmas, is not meant to dazzle. It is simply meant to guide. The star does not force the wise men's steps; it invites them forward. In the same way, the light of Christ does not coerce belief or obedience. Rather, it draws us, gently and persistently, toward life, toward truth, toward love. In a world that often feels shadowed by fear, division, and fatigue, Epiphany reminds us that God's light still shines—and it shines for all.

And then there is delight. The wise men rejoice with “exceedingly great joy,” Scripture tells us. They open their treasure chests. They give gifts not because they must, but because they want to.

Epiphany invites us to rediscover that kind of joy, that kind of delight at meeting once again this baby king. Not the fleeting happiness of perfect circumstances, but the steady delight of knowing we are seen, known, and loved by God. The delight of discovering that Jesus meets us right where we are; that Jesus is God with us.

In this season of Epiphany, may we follow the light we have been so graciously given. May we pay attention to where Christ's light is being revealed in our lives and in our community. And may we allow ourselves—not just to believe—but to delight. For the light still shines in darkness. The light always shines. Thanks be to God.

ARE YOU A THRIVENT MEMBER?

The church office was recently made aware that we have over 70 members of our church who are Thrivent Financial members! If this is you, will you please let the church office know? We want to help ensure that you are utilizing your Thrivent Action Team and Choice dollars. Thank you!

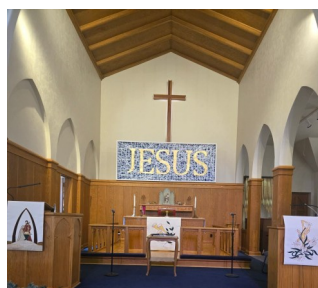

A HUGE thank you on behalf of the Hunger

Free Food Pantry to this year's food basket packers! Thirty-two families received much needed food support this Christmas thanks to these wonderful volunteers and so many more!

Thank you to Janine Anderson, Jodi Hirschert, and Gail Weisenberger for creating our new "Funeral Food Planning" binder! It contains all of the funeral food options, recipes and detailed instructions for Helping Hands workers! What a blessing this will be going forward!

Thank you to Sydney Carr & Amy Perleberg, members of the Worship & Arts Committee, for the BIG and beautiful Advent sign!

Each week the letters were changed to match the name of the Advent candle. We started with hope, then changed to peace, then joy, and then love.

For Christmas Eve (and the 12 days of Christmas) the word is of course "JESUS" in kingly gold!

Christmas Program

On December 21st, our LAUNCH students, under the direction of Tammy Sorensen, presented a Christmas Play/Program called "The Power of the King". A play about a children's choir that landed at a radio station during a snowstorm that shut down interstate. The staff and choir created their own program for the radio with the story of Jesus's birth and catchy tunes that went along with it. Following the program was a free-will soup and sandwich supper provided by the Board of Education.

LAUNCH teachers and Board of Education members want to thank everyone who took time out of their schedules to come and support the students and our children's education programs from the free-will supper.

Thank you to all of our LAUNCH families as this could not have been possible without your support. The extra LAUNCH time for practice was definitely appreciated and knowing your commitment to the program with all of the Sunday morning chaos means the world to the volunteers that give their time for this program.
