Offertory Doxology

All Saints Sunday Statement of Faith
We believe in God the Father, the Creator of heaven and earth, who holds all creation in love and holds each of us in the palm of his hand.
We give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, for the lives they lived and the love they shared, and for the ways their faith continues to shape our own.
We believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who entered into our suffering, who knew grief and wept at the tomb of his friend, who died upon the cross and rose again, defeating the power of sin and death.
In him, we have forgiveness, life, and salvation.
In him, we find hope when our hearts are broken, comfort when we grieve,
and the promise that death will never have the final word.
Nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, who comforts us in our sorrow, strengthens us when our faith falters, and gathers us into one body, the church.
We give thanks for the communion of saints, for those who worship beside us and those who now rest in God's eternal care.
We trust that we are held together in Christ, across every distance, even the distance of death.
We believe in the resurrection of the dead and the life everlasting, when mourning and crying and pain will be no more, when God will make all things new,
and when we will dwell in the fullness of God's love.
Until that day, we live in hope,
we love one another,
and we entrust our beloved dead and ourselves to the mercy and faithfulness of God.
Thanks be to God. Amen.
